 - ii. approval of Provider's contracts for management or for the provision of services;
 - iii. approval of settlements of administrative proceedings or litigation to which Provider is a party.
 - iv. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall permit, authorize or create the corporate practice of medical services. This Section is intended to set forth the understanding and intent of the Parties that all required medical decisions and conduct will be done by licensed health care professionals affiliated with Provider and not by the Company.
- c. Independent Contractor.
 - i. Provider and Company are and shall be at all times acting hereunder as independent contractors. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as creating a partnership, joint venture, agency or employment relationship between Company and Provider, or any relationship other than that of independent parties contracting with each other solely for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement. Company and Provider agree that Provider shall retain the authority to direct all of the medical, counseling, professional, clinical, and ethical aspects of its practice. Company shall neither exercise control over nor interfere with the doctor-patient relationships of the Provider, which shall be maintained strictly between the licensed practitioners of Provider and its medical staff and their patients. Provider shall be solely responsible for and have sole and complete authority, supervision, medical management, and control over the provision of clinical and other health care services provided to end user patients of the platform. Additionally, Provider shall have exclusive authority over the management of all diagnoses, treatments, procedures, and other professional health care services, whether clinical or administrative, including but not limited to activities related to the insurance reimbursement process. When the patient chooses to use the product directly, they shall be considered a direct user, and any interactions or engagements with the product by the patient directly shall be governed by separate terms applicable to the end user. To the extent that any acts of Company required by any provision of this Agreement shall be construed or deemed to constitute the practice of medicine, said provision shall be void ab initio or from the date of adoption of such law or regulation, as the case may be, and the performance of said act or service shall be deemed waived upon Provider's receipt of written notice of said waiver. Provider shall be solely responsible for all aspects of the services provided by Provider, including but not limited to clinical services, practice management, revenue cycle management, and other related functions. Provider shall have exclusive authority over the supervision, selection, direction, contracting, hiring, and firing of all personnel, including medical professionals, therapists, counselors, practitioners, administrative staff, and other clinical professionals rendering services on Provider's behalf. If the development of the Company Apps results in new derivative works of Provider Content that constitute audio or visual assets (excluding AI models), then all right, title, and interest in Provider Content Derivative Works (including all Intellectual Property Rights therein) shall belong to Provider and shall be deemed to be Provider Content for purposes of the licenses granted pursuant to the Terms. Company hereby irrevocably and exclusively grants, transfers, and assigns to Provider all Intellectual Property Rights that Company has, or may have, in or to Provider Content Derivative Works (excluding AI models). With respect to any so-called “moral rights” exercisable with respect to Provider Content Derivative Works (excluding AI models), Company hereby unconditionally waives such rights and the enforcement thereof.

- ii. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where customers receive the software (either for free or for a fee) in exchange for allowing the Company to train AI models on their Provider Content, the resulting AI models and any derived intellectual property shall be owned by the Company. This ownership is separate and distinct from Provider Content Derivative Works as specified in this clause.
- b. Marks and other Intellectual Property. All trademarks, service marks, trade names, domain names, slogans, logos, and other indicia of origin that appear on or in connection with any aspect of the Company Apps are either the property of the Company, its affiliates or licensors. Information disclosed or provided by or on behalf of a Party (the “Disclosing Party”) shall be deemed Confidential Information if such information is in tangible or intangible form and is marked or designated by the Disclosing Party as confidential, or if, under the circumstances of its disclosure, the other Party (the “Receiving Party”) reasonably should consider such information to be Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party. Each Party agrees that it will take reasonable precautions to protect the confidentiality of the other Party’s Confidential Information, at least as stringent as it takes to protect its own Confidential Information, and whether for its own account or the account of any third party, that it will not use in any way or disclose Confidential Information to a third party without the Disclosing Party’s prior written consent, except as expressly permitted by, or required to achieve the purposes of, this Agreement.

Provider may capture Personal Information and send it to the Company Apps. “Personal Information” means information provided by Provider or collected by Company under the Terms, which information identifies or can be used to identify, contact, or locate the person or device to whom that information pertains. Personal Information includes name, address, phone number, fax number, email address, social security number, or other government issued identifier, and credit-card information. Additionally, to the extent other information (including a personal profile, unique identifier, and/or biometric information is associated or combined with Personal Information), then that information is also Personal Information. Company will not use Personal Information accessed or collected while performing under the Terms for any purpose other than those expressly permitted by the Terms.
 - i. Limitations on Disclosure of Personal Information. Company will not share any Personal Information that is collected or accessed by it while performing under the Terms with any third parties for any reason except as necessary to carry out its obligations hereunder or as required to comply with law, and only under terms and conditions substantially similar to those contained in this Section. If Company is served with a court order compelling disclosure of any Personal Information or with notice of proceedings for such an order, Company shall (i) give Provider reasonable notice prior to such disclosure to allow Provider a reasonable opportunity to seek a protective order or equivalent, and (ii) at Provider’s discretion, either assist Provider in opposing the order or provide Provider the opportunity to intervene before Company files any response to the order or notice.
